

COP 21 should ensure support from EU industry to combat global warming

Conclusion with expectations for COP 21

by Annette Loske, President IFIEC Europe Press Conference

COP 21 - Paris - 2 December 2015

EU industry's expectations for COP 21

Fair industry competition rules for all

EU industry's expectations for COP 21

A momentum and impulse to innovative solutions making our low carbon future possible and worth living

Manufacturing industries are the source of innovation

EU industry's expectations for COP 21

Understanding the need for integrated approach in combating global warming.

Only then, we are enabled to deliver our support.

Manufacturing industry support is essential in combating global warming

A successful COP 21 is...

A binding agreement with commitments that lead in a foreseeable future to comparable carbon cost burdens for industrial competitors
in the major competing / emitting regions

